BRANDGUARD GLOBAL MARKETING AND BRAND COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES (2026)

Section 1: General Tone and Voice Requirements

All official marketing content, social media posts, and advertising materials must maintain an authoritative, professio
Aggressive urgency language, hype claims, and deceptive clickbait tactics are strictly prohibited across all brand cha

Section 2: Claims, Guarantees, and Performance Statements

Policy 2.1: Absolute Guarantees Prohibited.

Marketing content must not contain absolute outcome guarantees or promise 100% results. We never use phrases s

Policy 2.2: Superlative and Market Leadership Claims.

Do not claim a product is the best in the world or #1 in the market without verified, accredited third-party audit docun

Section 3: Regulated Sector Disclaimers and Prohibited Terms

Policy 3.1: Medical and Health Claims.

Avoid unapproved medical or clinical claims. The company does not offer medical cures, and words such as ’miracle

Policy 3.2: Financial Promises.

Financial outcomes, get-rich assertions, and guaranteed returns are strictly prohibited.

Policy 3.3: Mandatory Disclaimers.

All promotional offers and metric outcomes must display the standard disclosure: ’Terms and conditions apply. Resu