BRANDGUARD OFFICIAL MARKETING & BRAND GOVERNANCE POLICIES (2026)

Section 1: General Tone and Verification Directives
RULE 4: Marketing content must use professional and respectful language.
All campaign copy, customer communications, and public advertisements must maintain an authoritative, dignified, a

RULE 5: Product benefits must be supported by approved information.
Every statement asserting technical capabilities, operational speed, or efficacy must be backed by documented evid

Section 2: Outcome Prohibitions and Superiority Restrictions
RULE 1: Marketing content must not promise guaranteed results.
Organizations and marketing authors must never assure universal outcomes or infallible success. Performance fluct

RULE 2: Absolute performance claims such as "100% guaranteed" are prohibited.
Phrases including ’100% guaranteed’, ’guarantees 100% results’, ’never fails’, and ’risk-free’ are strictly prohibited in

RULE 3: Unverified claims that a product is the best in the world are prohibited.
Superlative market leadership assertions such as ’best solution in the world’ or ’#1 in the world’ must be supported b